

I graduated in 1988 from New York University as a Founder's Day Scholar with a B.A. in Journalism.

Why is Sinclair Broadcasting requiring their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election? This type of media consolidation is very dangerous for our country.

Journalism has a moral obligation to be fair and balanced. Sinclair should not be allowed to use the airwaves for free to broadcast one-sided political propaganda in the name of Journalism. Isn't that the purview of advertising?

Sinclair is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies like Sinclair control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
